

Summerfly - Written by Cheryl Wheeler

Key - Em, Am, B7, C

capo on 3rd

Em In another younger day I could dream the time away in the universe inside my room. Am

B7 And the world was really mine from June to September. Em

Em And if it wasn't really so, well I was lucky not to know,

Am and I was lucky not to wonder why,

B7 Cause the Summer time is all that I remember. Em

Chorus 1

Em Summerfly was buzzing every night when I was young, C

B7 In the gentle world my child like senses knew. Em

Em When the world was just my cousin

C and the wind was just the tongue,

B7 In the voice my lonely moments listened to. Em

Verse 2

And I look at me today and the dreams have gone away, and I am where never thought I would be.

Seeing things I never thought I'd see happening to me.

And I lay awake at night while the darkness goes to light, Hearing voices calling out my name.

Droning over and again the same message to me.

Chorus 2

Crying who's your partner, who's your darling, who's your baby now.

Who wakes up at night to pull you in.

Well, it don't matter you'll just make her lonely any how,

I don't know why you even try to win.

Repeat Chorus 2
